Lance (Roughneck Shorts Book 3) By Chelsea Camaron

Value, worth—these are things I don't have. College degree, great job—none of that matters if you look in the mirror and can't find anything to love.

Structure, dedication, and determination are the traits that Candace Jones has survived and thrived on. When no one cares at home, it takes her self-drive to push and work her way through college. Life is funny while you're growing up, and adulthood isn't any easier than childhood. Little girl dreams are often destroyed before they can even begin.

Lance 'Rush' Miller works hard and plays even harder. He lives life from one adrenaline rush to the next, from working as a roughneck to trick riding his street bike. He has it made and knows it.

What happens when firm resolve crashes into wild abandon? Two complete opposites are thrown together when Candace finds herself in need of a quick escape that Lance is all too willing to give her.

This is a stand alone novella with a HEA. NO Cliffhanger! Each book in this series can be read on its own and out of order. Contains adult content and language not suitable for readers under the age of 18.
