Life Cycles: Your Emotional Journey To Freedom And Happiness By Christine DeLorey

The book that's all about YOU, your emotions, and this turbulent world in which you must now find your way

Since our world changed so suddenly on September 11th, and with subsequent events still unfolding, Christine DeLorey's LIFE CYCLES Your Emotional Journey To Freedom And Happiness, has taken on a new and illuminating relevance. Through her profound knowledge of numerology, Christine speaks of the new millennium as a cycle of time in which real and lasting peace can only come from understanding and healing our emotions. This, she explains, holds the same importance as understanding and healing the mind, body, and spirit. With an emphasis on finding our way to peace, her 22 years of research have resulted in this unique and groundbreaking book which addresses the chaotic and emotional times in which we are now living - and the part we are all playing in determining the direction humanity is about to take. (See Part 3 - LIFE, LOVE & LIBERTY IN THE NEW MILLENNIUM)

She also describes, explicitly, how your personal numerology cycles influence your emotions, relationships, career, money, health, security and your awareness of today's realities. This extraordinary book is your personal month-by month, year-by-year roadmap to whatever the future brings. (See Part 1 - DESTINY NUMBERS and PART 2 - YOUR JOURNEY)

About the Author

Born in London in 1951, to an English mother and an Irish father, Christine DeLorey was deeply influenced by her parents' experiences of WWII and the ongoing conflict between Ireland and England. Her desire to understand the process of peace is her prime motivation.

She believes that our personal numerology is the spiritual equivalent of DNA, but does not believe that our numerological or genetic imprinting is the end of the story.

22 years of research led her to what our imprinting hides - FREE WILL - which, when properly understood and applied, leads to peace, creativity, insight, and real unconditional love - not the denial of our true feelings which is all too often mistaken for unconditional love. She learned that emotional healing is the key to all physical healing.

Christine has researched all the existing branches of numerology only to realize that most books on the subject are based on ancient knowledge that does not take into account humanity's changing, cyclical, and evolving nature. "We have only touched the surface of this 'ancient' science."

"The part of numerology that I've been focusing on relates to the power of our emotions - a positive power that we've kept buried inside us, afraid to confront. The only way to fully understand our feelings is to feel them fully. We are all living emotional lives these days because we are in a cycle of time in which it is natural for us to learn about this power. The more we try to bury our feelings, the harder they will try to break free."

Christine is the only numerologist who is interpreting numbers from the standpoint of the new millennium, which is emotional, feminine, and intuitive in nature. She contends that there is much more to the digital age than just technology. Digits are numbers. Therefore, the digital age is the age of numbers!

"The 1000s taught us about our individuality. The 2000s will teach us about freeing our individual and precious wills and creating our lives as we want them to be, and this includes finding a way to make PEACE."
