The Immortal Collection (A Saga of the Ancient Family Book 1) By Eva García Sáenz

When Adriana, a brilliant young archaeologist, accepts a position at the Museum of Archaeology in her hometown of Santander, Spain, she never imagines that her new boss has lived through the history she can only study.

Iago, the charismatic technical director of the museum, is more than ten thousand years old but appears to be only thirty-five. Iago and his family are longevos—people who never seem to age after reaching adulthood. The ancient family is divided: Iago's brother and sister seek the source of their longevity in hopes of creating more like themselves, while Iago and his father fear the repercussions of the true Fountain of Youth.

A dangerous game of power and knowledge that has played out over eons becomes even more complicated when Adriana attracts both brothers' attention—and learns their secret.

Filled with science, history, and passion, The Immortal Collection transports the reader through time and space, from the days of cavemen, through the Roaring Twenties, to the charming plazas of contemporary Spain. Ancient history meets cutting-edge research in this modern love story and sweeping historical saga.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Eva García Sáenz was born in Vitoria, Spain, in 1972 and has lived in Alicante on Spain's Costa Blanca since she was fifteen. She is a licensed optometrist and held various positions in optometry for ten years before settling into her current administrative role at the University of Alicante. For three years, she wrote in the evenings to complete The Immortal Collection, her first novel. She originally self-published on Amazon's Spanish website. Thanks to enthusiastic reader reviews, the novel became a bestseller and a literary phenomenon in the social media world. After the book was published traditionally in Spain, it hit the print bestseller lists as well. The author is currently working on her second book.
