Can You Lose Your Salvation?: Five Warning Passages of Hebrews By Dr Rick Hertless

There are many Christians who have been told one can fall in and out of salvation; convinced that somehow the work of the cross was not good enough. One must continuously be good for Christ to stay in his grace. That is what I used to believe as well. However, once God revealed his grace to me in a miraculous way I discovered that once one is saved he or she is saved for eternity. Salvation is not contingent on how good or bad one is. Salvation depends on following the Word of God. This small book briefly discusses the greatness of God and the massiveness of his eternal grace.
