Carne viva (Spanish Edition) By Vera Giaconi

Estos cuentos, variaciones del tema de la mujer anómala en las sombrías repeticiones de la vida privada media, están hechos de transiciones resbaladizas y diálogos imprudentes: cuando los sentimientos pasan a la conciencia la frase ya los delató y otra frase viene a consumirlos. De este rápido desgaste surge un clima de vigilia inmanejable, si se quiere de ilusión incauta, que hoy todos conocemos por experiencia propia pero no todos sabemos describir. Vera Giaconi no esconde su trato con una corriente de narradoras anglosajonas que desde hace muchas décadas viene poniendo el realismo en ascuas. Es una tradición que ha dado a la literatura no menos perspectivas y al lector no menos amplitud que la gran narrativa experimental. En realidad también experimenta, pero de otra manera: sabiendo que, si no es posible contar la realidad, es muy posible describir bien con qué grado loco de error, de horror o de acierto la percibimos.
