Editorial Review

Review

'Fiore's careful study, based on British and Italian archives, opens up a neglected area of Anglo-Italian imperial rivalry in the 1920s and 1930s.' Contemporary European History '... Fiore's book [...] includes a detailed and very useful review of the existing literature on the topic, both in Italian and English... there is no denying that it constitutes a thorough synthesis of the Anglo-Italian relationship in the Middle East in the 1920s and '30s.' Israel Journal of Foreign Affairs '... well written and engaging. Fiore is to be congratulated for an incisive, interesting and readable diplomatic history of a vital period in European and world history.' English Historical Review
