Review

"March's return to Eternity Springs exudes warmth, love and courage – all the elements of a cozy Christmas romance. While Jax and Claire's romance is of course deliciously toe-curling and swoon-inducing, it is Nicholas' story that really becomes the star of the show. Fans of the series, as well as first-time readers, will delight in the novelty of the town and its potpourri of characters." ? RT Book Reviews

"March excels at creating tortured characters in need of redemption and renewal, and this book, the tenth in the Eternity Springs series, is no exception. It has plenty to offer, from light suspense to romance, close friendships in a small town setting, dogs, and angels.
