The Presidency and the Political System From Brand: CQ Press

Since the first edition published in 1984, The Presidency and the Political System has become the most widely assigned book in courses on the presidency. With its incisive and insightful original essays showcasing top-notch scholarship, its no surprise that this volume has proven to be both enduring and indispensable. Joining revised, yet time-tested, essays that continue to explore the themes of presidential power and effectiveness, contributions by new authors Lyn Ragsdale, George C. Edwards III, Marc Landy, Joseph Pika, and Andrew Rudalevige complete the updating to reflect George W. Bush's second term, the 2008 elections, and Barack Obama's transition and early months as president.
