About the Author

Audie G. Lewis es un respetado líder en el mundo de los negocios, líder laico en su iglesia y autor de cuatro libros. Lewis estudió en el Seminario Teológico Bautista del Sur y actualmente se está preparando para obtener un Doctorado en Filosofía con especialidad en Biblia y Teología por la Universidad Bautista de Luisiana.

Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-1892), nació en Inglaterra, y fue un predicador bautista que se mantuvo muy influyente entre cristianos de diferentes denominaciones, los cuales todavía lo conocen como «El príncipe de los predicadores». El predicó su primer sermón en 1851 a los dieciséis años y paso a ser pastor de la iglesia en Waterbeach en 1852. Publicó más de 1.900 sermones y predicó a 10.000.000 de personas durante su vida. Además, Spurgeon fue autor prolífico de una variedad de obras, incluyendo una autobiografía, un comentario bíblico, libros acerca de la oración, un devocional, una revista, poesía, himnos y más. Muchos de sus sermones fueron escritos mientras él los predicaba y luego fueron traducidos a varios idiomas. Sin duda, ningún otro autor, cristiano o de otra clase, tiene más material impreso que C.H. Spurgeon.

Spurgeon preached to upwards of ten million people during his forty-plus years of ministry before joining his Lord in 1892. Thousands came to Christ under his evangelistic influence while he served as the pastor of the New Park Street Chapel and the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, England. Without the aid of microphones or modern technologies, Charles Spurgeon pastored a flock of more than six thousand members, the largest single congregation known to exist prior to his ministry. During this same period he helped to start more than forty other churches and oversaw the Pastor's College and the Stockwell Orphanage. During his lifetime, he was a major influence on the lives of many great Christian leaders including Dwight Moody, Hudson Taylor, George Mueller, and Oswald Chambers. Spurgeon's writings have sold millions worldwide including a continual republication of more than two thousand of his best sermons. Although he is often referred to as the 'Prince of Preachers,' his words of Godgiven insight have blessed many more laypeople than pastors. Our hope in putting this devotional together is that many, many more laypeople, pastors, and future Christians will be encouraged and strengthened by these spiritual insights that have been gathered from the best of the best of Charles Spurgeon's timeless sermons. Also included is an additional daily Scripture reference at the bottom of each page that corresponds to either an Old Testament or a New Testament book. If this additional reading is followed, it will allow the reader to completely read through the entire Bible in one year. May God continue to bless each and every reader as they sit with this great pastor at the Master's feet!

Introduction

As I look back upon my own history, little did I dream when first I opened my mouth for Christ, in a very humble way, that I should have the honor of bringing thousands to Jesus. Blessed, blessed be his name! He has the glory of it. But I cannot help thinking that there must be some other lad here, such a one as I was, whom he may call by his grace to do service for him. When I had a letter sent to me by the deacons of the church at New Park Street to come up to London to preach, I sent it back by the next post, telling them that they had made a mistake, that I was a lad of nineteen years of age, happy among a very poor and lowly people in Cambridgeshire who loved me, and that I did not imagine they could mean that I was to preach in London. But they returned it to me and said that they knew all about it and that I must come. Ah, what a story it has been since then of the goodness and loving-kindness of the Lord!

CHARLES HADDON

SPURGEON FROM THE SERMON 'THE LAD'S LOAVES'

Keep to the Word of God Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true. ACTS 17:11 I commend scrupulous obedience to all of you, and especially to those young people who have lately made a profession of their faith in Christ. Do not be as your fathers were, for the generation that is now going off the stage neither reads its Bible nor cares to know the Lord's will. If people searched the Scriptures, we should find them come together in union; but the least-read book in all the world, in proportion to its circulation, is the Word of God. It is distributed everywhere, but it is read scarcely anywhere with care and attention and with a sincere resolve to follow its precepts at all hazards. You come and listen to us, and we give you little bits taken from it here and there, but you do not get a fair notion of it as a whole. How can you? Ministers make mistakes, and you follow them without inquiry. One elects this leader and another that, to the creation of varieties of opinions and even of sects, which ought not to be, and would not be if all stood fast by the standard of inspired truth. If the Bible were but read and prayed over, many errors would die a speedy death, and others would be sorely crippled. Had that inspired Book been read in the past, many errors would never have arisen. Search you, then, the Book of God, I pray you; and whatever you find there, be sure to attend thereto. At all costs, keep to the Word of God.

Through the Bible in One Year: Matthew 1--2

January 1 He Will Supply All Your Needs

And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS 4:19 If he will supply you, you will be supplied indeed, for God is infinite in capacity. He is infinitely wise as to the manner of his actions, and infinitely powerful as to the acts themselves. He never sleeps nor tires; he is never absent from any place but is always ready to help. Your needs come, perhaps, at very unexpected times; they may occur in the midnight of despondency or in the noonday of delight, but God is ever near to supply the surprising need. He is everywhere present and everywhere omnipotent, and he can supply all your needs, in every place, at every time, to the fullest degree. Remember that 'omnipotence has servants everywhere' and that whenever God wishes to send you aid, he can do it without pausing to ask, 'How shall it be done?' He has but to will it, and all the powers of heaven and earth are subservient to your necessity. With such a Helper, what case have you to doubt?

Through the Bible in One Year: Matthew 3--4

January 2 Priests unto the Most High

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 1 PETER 2:9 Such a one as Jesus in such a one as I am! The King of Glory in a sinner's bosom! This is a miracle of grace, yet the manner of it is simple enough. A humble, repenting faith opens the door, and Jesus enters the heart at once. Love shuts the door with the hand of penitence, and holy watchfulness keeps out intruders.
