First Love Second Choice By Lindzee Armstrong

What happens when you impersonate your identical twin sister to score a date with your long-lost high school crush?

When wedding planner Keslee gets asked on a date by her long-lost high school crush, Bryce, everything should be perfect. But Bryce mistakes Keslee for her deceased twin sister, Jady. And Keslee doesn't correct him. Talk about awkward. To make matters worse, she learns they'll be seeing a lot more of each other because Bryce is the marketing director at the venue where Keslee's new client has chosen to get married. Keslee knows the charade can't last much longer, and fears she'll lose Bryce forever when she tells him the truth.

Editorial Review

Review

"She had me at a midnight ice cream run in Batman jammies."

-Candice N. Toone, author of Closing Time

"This story showed the strength of family connection and how those ties never dissolve, even after death. A quick, enjoyable, well-crafted read."

-Tristi Pinkston, author of Turning Pages and Take My Advice

"Simply romantic. A heart-warming love story formed around honesty, forgiveness and friendship."

-The Book Stalker, reviewer

About the Author

Lindzee Armstrong isn't an identical twin, but she does have identical twin boys that keep her on her toes. Constantly having to explain to people which child is which, and how she knows that, partly inspired this story.

Lindzee is married to the most supportive man in the world, who regularly takes care of the twins while she escapes with her laptop to chase her dream of being a writer. When she has time for hobbies, Lindzee is a reality TV junkie, loves to cross-stitch, and sometimes even finds time to play the piano. She thinks nuts in dessert are yucky and has an obsession with double chocolate fudge ice cream, and wishes she liked things like running or yoga.
