Editorial Review

Review

"An excellent book for lay people." BusinessWeek "The most streamlined, yet thorough information available on how to write a valid will quickly and safely without a lawyer." Long Beach Press-Telegram "Clifford, an estate planning attorney, describes how to create a basic will for simple situations. He explains types of wills and other basic aspects, then how to decide on beneficiaries; give away property; name guardians for children; choose an executor; understand probate, taxes, and other estate planning issues; prepare a draft of the will; prepare and sign the final will; store and copy it; change or revoke it; and hire a lawyer and create other documents, such as durable power of attorney. The book includes sample forms valid in every state except Louisiana. This edition incorporates changes to federal estate tax law." Eithne O'Leary, Editor Ringgold, Inc. ProtoView
