Editorial Review

Review

"A captivating story. . . I couldn't put the book down." -- Tricia Goyer, Author of acclaimed W.W.II novels From Dust and Ashes and Night Song.

Review

A captivating story of a courageous and sensitive Jewish Aryan girl who longs for a father's love and finds it in a faith not her own. I cried both tears of sadness and joy with Anita, and I couldn't put the book down. This is a shining contribution of Christian faith despite hardships during the Holocaust.
-Tricia Goyer, Author of acclaimed W.W.II novels From Dust and Ashes and Night Song

From the Author

This sixth and final book in The Daughter's of the Faith series tells the real account of Anita Dittman, a Jewish girl growing up in Nazi Germany. Her story is one of courage and faith. During the interview process, as Ms. Dittman recounted the events of those desperate years, the theme that emerged was one of God's providence, not Hitler's horror.
