The New Testament Church: Are there apostles and prophets in today's NT church? (Life in Christ) (Volume 7) By Joan Boney

What would it be like in the town where you live if there were no police officers and no judges to rule over secular matters?

Lawlessness ... every man for himself?

In the Bible, antichrist is called, “The Man of Lawlessness”. II Thess. 2

Paul said in the last days “perilous” times would come. II Tim. 3:1

Jesus set up a plan for the NT Church. After Jesus arose, after the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, we read HE gave gifts to the church ...

11 And HE gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: (Eph. 4)

We see evangelists, pastors, teachers ... But where are the apostles today? Where are the prophets today?

Jesus gave them to the church after HE arose.

Where are they? Who are they? What do they do in the church?

Apostles are like judges in God's court of law, in the church, ruling over doctrines by the Holy Spirit and the Holy Bible.

Prophets are like police officers, bringing correction by the anointing of God in the church.

In the removal by men of apostles and prophets in today's churches, we see the lawlessness of antichrist being staged inside the churches, where men rule as they will over the church, setting up all manner of fleshly doctrines at their own will.

Thus we have the perilous times in the NT Church spoken of by the apostle Paul in II Tim. 3:1

When you remove apostles and prophets from the NT Church you set up openings for lawlessness in the church.

That is what this book is about ... Perilous times today in the NT Church.
