To Him That Believeth By Frederick Babbel, June Babbel

All of us want the blessings of peaceful, provident living for ourselves and our families. These blessings can be ours through the powers of heaven. To Him That Believeth teaches us how to activate those powers. "Claiming" heaven's blessings is one of the most key and important elements. Other concepts, such as building powerful faith, establishing personal revelation and activating priesthood power are presented in a stimulating style, supported by scriptural quotations and expressions of modern prophets.

These marvelously exemplary authors have time-tested all of the principles espoused in this book. Exuding with confidence and reverence, they carefully lead us through some of the most important principles of heaven that should be applied in our lives.
