The Priesthood of All Believers: 1st Century Church Life in the 21st Century By Milt Rodriguez

In this revolutionary book, Milt Rodriguez has us take a new look at both the wine and the wineskin. The dynamic life of God's own Son cannot be contained within the rigid walls of the religious system. Milt pulls back the scales from our eyes to enable us to see God's eternal purpose and goal. Then he uses the picture of the priesthood to show us the difference between the levitical priesthood and the eternal priesthood of Melchizedek. The order of Melchizedek operates by the power of an endless life! Life always determines form.

God's goal is that the fulness of Christ would be expressed through His body. This cannot happen with our present day church practices. A revolution must take place where the centrality of Jesus Christ is supreme and every member of the body functions under His direct headship. Milt shows us how this can be possible in our present day situation. This book will not only shake your thoughts on church life, it will challenge you to take the torch of radical church reform into the 21st century!
