My Lord Hades: Children of Khaos Series By Stephannie Beman

In a world where Gods rule and Daemons are feared, Hades, the most notorious Phlegethon daemon-god to roam the ancient world, is released from his prison to aid in the war against the Titans. Past shrouded in darkness, Persephone, daughter of the earth goddess Demeter, heals from the ordeal that stole her memories and the magic that is an integral part of who she once was. When she meets a stranger in the woods, her life is forever changed. Betrayed by the Gods he once served, battle-weary Hades promised to never allow another god power over him, but he didn't plan on the intervention of the Fates intertwining his future with the stunning woman dancing in the moonlight, or the rise of his Phlegethon nature that demands he claim her as his own. Persephone has become the siren calling him, promising the completion of heart and soul, but only a fool accepts the gifts of a siren, or fight against the will of the Fates.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Stephannie Beman has been a storyteller since the moment she first learned to speak, an avid reader since before she could really read, a writer since she penned her first story, and a daydreamer on a mission. She loves the feel of the wind in her hair, the grass against her skin, and the feather light touch of breath on her neck. She is a child of nature, wild and free.

Stephannie, her husband, and two daughters presently live on a small ranch in Southwestern Wyoming in the original homestead cabin. She enjoys acres of trees, meadow land, mountains, and a river which only fuel her already fertile imagination. In her world legends walk, love is eternal, fables are alive, fairy tales have lessons to teach, and myths are survivors of bygone years.
